Columbié-Pileta M. Recognition of Outstanding Collaborators during the year 2024. Rev. Cienc. Med. Vida. 2025;3.

On behalf of the Journal of Medical and Life Sciences, we extend our deepest gratitude to the reviewers who have played a fundamental role in the success of our publication during the year 2024. Their dedication, academic rigor, and commitment to scientific excellence are essential pillars to guarantee the quality of each article we publish.

This year, we especially recognize the most outstanding reviewers, who, with their tireless efforts, have contributed significantly to the advancement of knowledge in our disciplines:

- Vania Silvera Rodríguez
- Elena Vega Torres

- Lita Elvira Saldaña Dávila
- Marian Lorena Dávila
- Lisandra Duany Osoria
- Marta Castillo
- Jorge Mariano Escobar
- Julio Castillo
- Maritza Domínguez Méndez
- Keny Alfonso Díaz

Our reviewers strengthen the quality of articles and inspire authors to reach new standards of excellence. Their time, experience and passion for science are invaluable to our journal and the scientific community.

Our sincere thanks to all the reviewers who collaborated with us this year. Your contribution is a testament to the collaborative spirit that drives progress in the medical and life sciences. Thank you for being an integral part of our mission!

It is essential to recognize the invaluable work of our translators to ensure that articles come to light with the desired quality in English, French, and Portuguese. They are:

- Marielos Chávez Valdez
- Sura Anne de Souza da Silva Toma

Thank you for all your time. It is valuable to increase international visibility!

We would also like to thank in advance several members of the Editorial Team who are beginning to work hard in 2025 in new roles within the editorial process so that the Journal of Medical and Life Sciences can continue to reach the top of international publishing standards and indexing in prominent sites of interest. They are:

- Maria Aurelia Lazo Pérez
- Verónica Ramos Suárez
- Carlos Rafael Araujo Inastrilla
- Dayami Gutiérrez Vera
- Mayelin Llosa Santana
- María Mercedes Vega Paredes

We thank our director, Dr. Guillermo Antonio Chávez Meza, who, with his passion or research and scientific publication, has made this beautiful project where science is within everyone's reach.

We especially acknowledge the authors and readers who trusted the new journal, published in January 2023. Their support and participation have been fundamental in consolidating us as an academic platform that promotes excellence and scientific innovation. To the authors who chose our journal to share their research: Your trust in us as a new publication honors us and motivates us to continue offering a rigorous and professional space for disseminating knowledge. Your work not only enriches our pages but also contributes to advancing medical and life sciences for the benefit of our global community.

To our readers, who have been with us since the first volume, your interest and feedback are our greatest reward. Thank you for opening our publications, reading them carefully, and recommending them to your colleagues. Your support validates our efforts and drives us to continue growing.

Together, we have taken the first steps toward building a robust, trustworthy, and relevant scientific space. This is just the beginning, and with your continued support, we will continue to move towards new horizons.

Thank you all for being part of this exciting journey!
